The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday November 20. to Saturday November 24. 1716.

St. James's, November 21.

AN humble Addreſs to His Majeſty from the Miniſters of New-England at their Annual Convention, was this Day preſented to His Royal Highneſs by Jeremy Dummer, Eſq; being introduced by the Right Honourable Paul Methuen, Eſq; One of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, and accompanied by Dr. Calamy, Mr. Tonge, Mr. Reinolds, Mr. Bradbury, and a conſiderable Number of New-England Gentlemen: To which Addreſs His Royal Highneſs gave a very favourable Anſwer; and all the Gentlemen had the Honour of Kiſſing his Royal Highneſs's Hand.

Stockholm, Oct. 16. On the 8th Inſtant a Proclamation was read in all the Churches of this City, as it has alſo ſince been throughout the whole Kingdom, whereby the King enjoyns amongſt all his Subjects the Currency of certain Notes or Tickets to be ſigned and ſealed by the Six Deputies of the States, whereon are marked 25 Dollars Silver Mint, which is 12 Rixdollars and an half; and whoever ſhall preſume to refuſe the receiving them as ready Money, is to incurr the ſame Penalty that is preſcribed by the Proclamation which ordered the Currency of the ſmall Copper-Pieces called Mint-Tokens, namely, that they ſhall be puniſhed as Contemners of his Majeſty's Royal Commands. Theſe Tickets are to be taken by the Collectors of the King's Revenues, for all future ordinary and extraordinary Contributions, but not on the Duties for Goods imported or exported, nor are they to be allowed of in any Payments either to or from the Bank.

(Price Three Half Pence.)

The Advices by the laſt Poſt from Carlſcrona, tell us, that Admiral Wachtmeiſter had received repeated Orders from the King to put to Sea with the Fleet; and accordingly he ſailed from thence on the 6th Inſtant, with 15 Ships of the Line; but was next Day forced by a Storm into a Bay near Carlſhaven. Letters which came in to Day from Gottenburg bring an Account, that one of the King's Frigates of 40 Guns, called Elfsborg, which by his Majeſty's Order was lately lent to M. Gatenhielm, who is principal Owner of the Privateers at that Port, was in the laſt Week ſtaved on the Rocks near Malſtrand, together with another Privateer of 24 Guns.

Madrid, Nov. 9. His Catholick Majeſty has taken a Reſolution to oblige Foreigners to leave the Weſt-Indies: They are generally French, and ſettled in that Country, particularly in Peru, during the laſt War. For this purpoſe his Majeſty has ordered the Squadron of Martinet, conſiſting of four Ships of the Line, which will be joyned by two Men of War from Biſcay, to be got ready to put to Sea in March next. The King has granted Leave to the Walloons who are in his Service, to return home if they think fit, unleſs they will ſubmit to the Reform made in the Military Eſtabliſhment. The Marqueſs de Risbourg, to whom the King has offered the Commiſſion of Colonel of the Walloon Guards, has not yet given in his Anſwer whether he will accept it or not. The Duke d' Avré continues at Vallecas, about a League from hence, and it does not appear that the King has any Inclination to recall him to Court.

London,

Lisbon, Nov. 14. On the 28th of last Month the King of Portugal, accompanied by his Brother Don Antonio, the Duke of Cadaval, the Gentlemen of his Bed Chamber, Father Podrosi, and Sig. Mendonza, set out for Alentejo, having left the Queen here to Govern in his Absence. His Majesty has been at Evora, Estremos, Villa Vicioſa, and Elvas, and is now at Villa Vicioſa. His Majesty was perſwaded to make this Progreſs for his Health: The Time of his Return is uncertain, but 'tis believed he will be back by the End of this Month. Sig. Ferrajo, a Neapolitan, the Pope's Nuncio Extraordinary to this Court, imbarked on the 13th Inſtant on board a Dutch Merchant-Ship for Calais, in order to go thence to Switzerland, where he is to reſide. On the 5th Inſtant came in Captain Falkingham, in His Britannick Majesty's Ship the Gibraltar, from Newfoundland. The Glouceſter, Capt. Paſſenger, and the Dragon, Capt. Maſters, are alſo arrived here from Admiral Baker. By Letters from Gibraltar of the 23d paſt, it appears that the Moors are now more inclined to come to Terms of an Accommodation than when Admiral Cornwall arrived there; and that upon his Complaint, they had Cloathed all the Priſoners, fed them well, and freed them from Work.

Hambourg, Nov. 24. Letters from Berlin of the 21ſt Inſtant adviſe, that the Day before Orders were diſpatched from thence to deliver up the Counteſs of Coſſel into the Hands of the King of Poland's Officers, at whoſe Inſtance ſhe was ſeized ſome Time ago in Hall. The King of Poland has on this Occaſion written a Letter himſelf to his Pruſſian Majeſty, with Aſſurances that ſhe ſhall be ſet at Liberty aſſoon as ſhe has reſtored certain Papers which he demands. Our laſt Letters from Mecklenbourg adviſe, that the Czar went from Swerin on the 21ſt Inſtant, in order to have an Interview with the King of Pruſſia at Havelberg. At his Departure from Swerin 'twas the Talk there, that his Conſort is to come to this Town, and that his Czariſh Majeſty will come hither to her in a few Days.

Bruſſels, Nov. 23. The Forfeiture of the Eſtates of thoſe who followed King Philip, whereof mention was made ſome Time ſince, is on the Repreſentations of the Merchants of theſe Provinces, only to extend to the Military Perſons who are now actually in King Philip's Service: And the Fiſcal and Attorney-General of the Council of Brabant, have received Orders to diſcharge their Duty, by proſecuting, purſuant to his Imperial Majeſty's Decree, all Military Perſons therein concerned, and to proceed to the forfeiting of their Eſtates accordingly. The States of the Province of Luxemburg, whoſe Conſtitution and Adminiſtration of Juſtice differs from that of this Province, have lately appointed the Count de Lanoy, Adminiſtrator of the County of Namur, to be One of the Seven Juſticiaries of the Court called La Cour Noble, in the Place of the Son of the Count d' Autel, heretofore Governour of the Town of Namur, who is lately deceaſed. The aforeſaid States have alſo made preſſing Inſtances with the Imperial Miniſter, that the Value of the Coin in their Province, might be augmented: But the Mint-Maſter General of theſe Provinces, has repreſented the Inconveniencies that would attend that Augmentation; whereupon the Imperial Miniſter has asked the Advice of the Chamber of Accompts of Brabant, under whoſe Juriſdiction the aforeſaid Province lies with reſpect to this Particular. On the 16th Inſtant, about Five in the Afternoon, the Marquis de Prié arrived in this Town, under a Triple Diſcharge of the Artillery on the Ramparts, accompanied by the Archbiſhop of Mechlin, the Biſhops of Ghent and Ruremond, the Governour of this Place, and a great Number of the Nobility, ſome of whom met him at Mechlin, and others at the Three Fountains, and accompanied his Excellency to his Lodgings, where he received the Compliments of a great Number of Perſons of all Ranks. Yeſterday Morning his Excellency was complimented by the Foreign Miniſters who reſide here, and by the Courts of Juſtice and Colleges, on his Arrival and Entring upon the Adminiſtration of the Government of the Auſtrian Netherlands; and he was afterwards entertained at Dinner (with Count Kinigſegg) by Count Vehlen, Commander in Chief of the Forces in theſe Countries. Laſt Night the States of the Province of Hainaut, arrived here from Mons, and this Morning they made their Compliment of Congratulation to his Excellency, who was very ſplendidly entertained at Dinner by Count Kinigſegg, whoſe Adminiſtration ceaſed on the Arrival of the Marquis. The German Letters, which arrived on the 16th, brought us the ill News of the Death of the Archduke; on which Occaſion, 'tis ſaid, there will be Orders for every Body to go into Mourning, as ſoon as the Imperial Miniſter ſhall have received the Notification of it in Form, from the Court of Vienna.

Weſtminſter,

Weſtminſter, Nov. 20. This Day the Parliament met, and was further prorogued to the 8th Day of January next.

Horſe-Guards, Nov. 22, 1716.

Whereas His Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales hath been pleaſed to appoint a Board, conſiſting of General Officers, and others, to examine into the Pretenſions of all Perſons, who do claim, or at preſent enjoy, the Benefit of half Pay upon the Eſtabliſhment of Great Britain, as reduced Officers of the Land Forces or Marines.
